GENERAL RULES

Manure must be placed in containers provided for that purpose. Anyone found placing wire, bottles, cans, sticks, dead animals or other trash in manure, during the fair will not be paid their premiums.

1. There will be no entry day at the fairgrounds. Entries may be made online starting June 1, 2022, at www.darkecountyfair.com. Entries will end August 1, 2022. Do not enter articles that you will not exhibit. If you need assistance to make entries, contact show secretary. Late entry after August 1, 2022 with $5.00 per head penalty. Late entries for the open class steer show, August 20, 2022, can be made up to 10:00 A.M. show day. However, barn room may not be available and is not guaranteed. Late entry fee does apply. There will be no pre entry for the feeder calf show. Entries will be made from 2:30 to 4:30 P.M., Friday, August 26, 2022, show day.
2. Entry fees and exhibitor's ticket must be paid at entry. Any Jr. Fair exhibitor who enters in open class must purchase an exhibitor's ticket. An exhibitor's ticket may be either a Membership certificate if you live in Darke County and are 18 years old or a Non-voting ticket if you live outside Darke County or are 12-17 years of age. All Jr. Fair cattle exhibitors must comply with open class rules when exhibiting in open class.
3. No livestock on the grounds before 12:00 noon on Thursday, August 18, 2022. Health papers will be checked on out-of-state animals.
4. No staples, nails, screws, bolts, wire or other permanent fasteners which could deface the cattle tie panels may be used. No holes of any type are to be bored in the panels. This also applies to the end panels and dividers. Those who deface the panels will immediately be expelled from the barn and will not be permitted to take part in the Darke County Fair Cattle Shows this season. You may use cable ties which will be furnished.
5. All cattle entered in Pure Bred classes must be registered in their respective American Herd Book. Original registration papers and tatoos will be checked. Double registered cattle can only show in one breed. Exhibitor's choice.
6. All animals must be entered in owner's name. Darke County Junior Fair beef projects entered in Open Class can be entered in owner's name.
7. Entry Fees are $10.00 each breeding class entry $10.00 each steers including stall, no stalls assigned until paid for. Paid entry fee does not guarantee stall space. Exhibitors will receive stalls for animals delivered to the Darke County Fair. No refunds will be made.
8. Do not make entries in Championship Classes.
9. The management reserves the right to reject any entry offered in the Cattle Department for due cause.

10. From the time a class is called, you have three minutes to be in the show ring. After that the class is closed.
11. Gate No. 4 is to be used by livestock exhibitors, 4-H advisors and Judges. Admittance is by gate/parking pass only. Gate/parking passes will be distributed as follows: One pass per address. Gate/parking pass possession does not guarantee a parking space.
12. All cattle trailers and trucks will be parked in lot assigned to them.
13. Any exhibitor, or employee of same, abusing or not treating with respect, the Awarding Committee, judge, or Superintendent of Department during the awarding of premiums or after the awards have been made will forfeit to the Society all premiums, entry fees and stall rent of this fair, and, at the discretion of the Board, shall be barred from showing at future Fairs.
14. Grooming chutes allowed in stall/tack area only.
15. No misters or hoses shall be attached to any water supply in barns. These are used for watering cattle, isles and bedding only!
16. Code of Ethics: To maintain a high degree of confidence in the livestock show, The Great Darke County Fair reserves the right to disqualify any animals that have been fitted in unethical manner. Unethical fitting shall include any injections of steroids, gas, solid, or liquid under the skin to alter the normal conformation. It shall include also any cutting or tearing of the hide or underneath the hide or removal of tissues in an attempt to alter the shape of the animal. It shall also include attempts to disrupt or change normal dental development as well as the dyeing or coloring of individuals which alters their natural coloration. Also artificial tail heads or polls and use of twine prohibited. Any attempts to change the degree of firmness of any individual shall also be considered unethical. Any person guilty of the above will be disqualified and barred from future shows. Any person found guilty of a felony offense, resulting from animal tampering or cheating, in connection with the showing of an animal in the State of Ohio, shall be barred from showing at the Darke County Fair for life. The Agricultural Society states that an exhibitor who is banned from exhibiting at any Ohio Fair, or any State Fair, and or any National or International Show will be banned from participating at the Darke County Fair.
17. ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES: State Law prohibits the use or possession of alcoholic beverages upon the grounds during a fair. Failure to comply is grounds for being prosecuted, forfeiture of entry fees and premiums and removal from the grounds immediately. In addition, the Superintendent of this department shall have the authority to also enforce any other penalty that he/she feels necessary, which may include suspension from a future fair or fairs as he/she so decides.

4. Open class steers and market heifers will be weighed Saturday, August 20, 2022, 8:00 to 10:00 A.M. to determine weight classes in the show. Market animals cannot show without being weighed.
5. All steers showing in Division IV Breed Show must have registration papers. Papers must accompany all Breed steers at weigh-in time to be checked to be eligible for the Breed Show.
6. Code of Ethics: To maintain a high degree of confidence in the livestock show, the Great Darke County Fair reserves the right to disqualify any animals that have been fitted in an unethical manner. Unethical fitting shall include any injections of steroids, gas, solid, or liquid under the skin to alter the normal conformation. It shall include also any cutting or tearing of the hide or underneath the hide or underneath the hide or removal of tissues in an attempt to alter the shape of the animal. It shall also include attempts to disrupt or change normal dental development as well as the dyeing or coloring of individuals which alters their natural coloration. Also artificial tail heads or polls and use of twine prohibited. Any attempts to change the degree of firmness of any individual shall also be considered unethical. Any person guilty of the above will be disqualified and barred from future shows. Any person found guilty of a felony offense, resulting from animal tampering or cheating, in connection with the showing of an animal in the state of Ohio, shall be barred from showing at the Darke County Fair for life. The Agricultural Society states that an exhibitor who is banned from exhibiting at any Ohio Fair, or any State Fair, and or any National or International Show will be banned from participating at the Darke County Fair.
7. In the question of a rule violation, the following due process will be used: The exhibitor and/or parties involved will be questioned by Fair officials. If it is felt a violation has occurred, Fair officials will make recommendations to the designated committee of the Agricultural Society which is appointed to that particular department. After the committee hears the allegations and/or evidence, they will decide if the case should be brought before the full Board of Directors.

In the decision of allegations being brought before the Board, all parties involved will be notified of a meeting date with all parties having the right to present their views and/or evidence. Upon hearing the case, the Fairboard will make a ruling.

When satisfactory evidence has been obtained by the Fairboard that any of the livestock rules have been violated, the exhibitor, a member of the exhibitor's immediate family or any other person shown to have had care, custody or attendance of the animal in any way, may be banned from showing in any future agricultural fairs. The minimum number of years of this ban is (3) years before the right to a review.

In case any premium shall have been awarded to animals shown in violation of this rule, the Fairboard will require the exhibitor to refund all premiums, trophies, awards, ribbons and sale money under each violation. Unless fraud and/or deception are involved, all championship placings stand.

8. The steer and/or market heifer must be of beef breeding, no dairy.
9. Premium for each weight class will be: — $30.00-$20.00-$10.00
10. Show order will be as follows:
